MINE SWEEPER

This software system will interact with the user to play minesweeper. There is a gameboard, which contains a 2 dimensional grid of blocks. Each block either contains a mine or it contains the number of mines, which are adjacent to that block. If a block is over turned it will display it’s number or it will blow up. Any block can receive a mine marker, but only marking mines will end the game.